

IPC - Internationale Projekt Consult GmbH (www.ipcgmbh.com) is a leading provider of advisory services to financial institutions and education providers in transition economies and developing countries. Our activities are concentrated on three main areas: 1. Development Finance, 2. Environment and Energy, 3. Training and Skills Development.

For our Green Finance team, which works worldwide in supporting banks in the area of mitigation and adaptation finance as well as in environmental management aspects of any kind we are looking for a

Senior Expert in the area of Green Finance (f/m)

Your tasks

You will support us with the implementation of green finance projects worldwide. Responsibilities will include: conducting market studies on energy sectors, investment potential, technological levels, suppliers and local know-how; defining eligibility criteria and developing catalogues of standard green investment measures; conducting feasibility studies for energy and resource efficiency and renewable energy investments; developing and providing training to bank staff, backstopping to local consultants.

You further will provide consultancy support and conduct short-term and long-term assignments to our clients in various project countries. We therefore expect a very high degree of geographic mobility at all times.

Your qualifications

You should be curious about other countries and cultures and be interested in linking your engineering knowledge to banking related topics. To strengthen our team we are seeking an expert with the following qualifications:

- a relevant degree in economic or social science and/or engineering
- at least ten years of practical experience in the field of energy market development and/or climate finance
- an excellent command of English and at least one other relevant language (e.g. Spanish, French, Russian)
- high interpersonal skills coupled with the ability and determination to communicate in a sincere and open manner
- interdisciplinary project experience as well as aptitude and enthusiasm for training staff members of our partner institutions
- willingness to travel and interest in short and long-term assignments to our projects

IPC offers you interesting and challenging work which will require a pragmatic approach, the desire to work efficiently in an interdisciplinary team and the assertiveness needed to get difficult jobs done right.

If you are interested in joining our team please send a motivation letter, your complete set of application documents (resume, university transcripts and letters of reference) and your earliest possible starting date with the header "Green Finance" to hr@ipcgmbh.com.
